

The Lafayette Society &
City Center Gallery & Books
With the Fayetteville Area Transportation and Local History Museum

Present

Author and Historian

Laura Auricchio

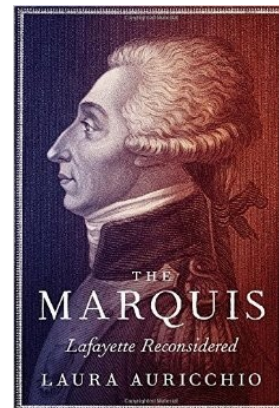

Dean of Undergraduate Studies at the New School in New York City

The Marquis: Lafayette Reconsidered

Join us for wine and cheese before the book signing and discussion

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20

7 PM at the Market House in Historic Downtown Fayetteville

The Marquis, a fresh look at the life of this French hero of the American Revolutionary War, uses new research by the author to reexamine his role on the world stage and to explore the reasons why he never achieved the same admiration in his home country that he enjoyed in America.

Copies of Ms. Auricchio's book will be available for purchase at the event. Books may also be purchased in advance at City Center Gallery & Books by calling 910-678-8899.